

■ For all students

Right "To accomplish basic education"

Responsibility "To value civic and democratic practices, human rights and try to become people who are responsible, inquisitive, and open minded"

■ For all teachers

Right "To freely choose teaching methods in accordance with the curriculum"

Responsibility "Teaching without harming students physically or mentally, and maintaining a positive relationship between teachers and students"

■ For all parents or guardians

Right "To register children in any schools which have followed the Basic Education Law"

Responsibility "Collaborate and work together with others in order to have positive learning environment, lifelong learning opportunities, and multi-talented children"

■ For the community

Right "To collaborate by giving suggestions and supporting schools in holistic development"

Responsibility "To collaborate in community awareness programs in order to increase general knowledge and living standards of the people"

“Right - entitlement to have or do something, or to be treated in a particular way.”⁽¹⁾

“Responsibility - duty to do something or behave in a particular way.”⁽²⁾

Above mentioned data is described and translated by the Republic of the Union of Myanmar, Basic Education Law – Burmese Version. In particular Basic Education Law, Chapter X. 1,2 are translated from DMNL- Myanmar Dictionary.

“This publication was prepared under a Grant funded by Family Health International under Cooperative Agreement/Grant No. [72048218LA00001] funded by [U.S Agency for International Development]. The content of this publication does not necessarily reflect the views, analysis or policies of FHI 360 or [U.S. Agency for International Development], nor does any mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by FHI 360 or [U.S. Agency for International Development].”